B. Reading Comprehension

Passage (Read carefully)

Rohan loved visiting his grandmother during the summer holidays. She lived in a small village surrounded by green fields and tall trees. Every morning, Rohan would wake up early and help his grandmother in the garden. They grew vegetables like tomatoes, carrots, and beans.

One day, Rohan noticed a small bird sitting near the plants. The bird looked hurt and could not fly. Rohan gently picked it up and showed it to his grandmother. She told him to keep the bird in a safe place and give it some water and grains.

Rohan took care of the bird every day. Slowly, the bird became stronger. After a few days, it started flapping its wings. One morning, the bird finally flew away into the sky. Rohan felt happy and proud that he had helped the bird.

That evening, his grandmother smiled and said, "Kindness always brings happiness." Rohan understood the importance of caring for others.
